

IN THE DISTRICT COURT

A BUSY TIME HAD YESTERDAY BY JUDGE KIBBLEY.

Arraignments of Those Indicted by the Last Grand Jury—Argument of Law Points in Civil Suits.

The first business in the District Court yesterday was the arraignment and pleading of those indicted by the Grand Jury for various crimes against the Territory.

Theodore Orocco was arraigned. Henry Miller pleaded not guilty to a charge of robbery. W. T. Riggs was represented by E. J. Edwards and pleaded not guilty to a charge of rape. The Court fixed his bail at $250. Simon Robles and Alberto Lopez, Chu-Cha-Chi, Key Santo and Tomico all pleaded not guilty to charges of burglary.

The case of Noonan vs. Grey was set for trial February 2, 1891. A motion to set aside judgment in Bonestill vs. King et al. was argued and taken under advisement by the Court.

In Foushee, guardian, vs. the Walnut Grove Water Storage Company et al., plaintiff was granted leave to amend his complaint.

Motion for new trial was argued in Jackson County Bank vs. Ainsworth.

At the afternoon session a motion that costs be returned was argued by counsel in the case of Goldman vs. Fisher.

Woodward & Chalmers argued a motion to make A. J. Halbert, as Sheriff, and his sureties liable for failure to return an execution. The Court decided that the matter was out of his jurisdiction and should be brought up in the Justice's court.

William Bohney, charged with murder, entered a plea of not guilty and a demurrer to the indictment.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The hazy atmosphere portends rain.

Two dozen turkeys were sent out on yesterday morning's stage for Prescott.

Giovanni Gange, a native of Italy, was nationalized in open court yesterday.

James F. O'Brien made affidavits for desert land entry before the Clerk of the District Court yesterday.

C. F. Henley loaded his team at Trask's yesterday with seed barley and started for his ranch in Antelope Valley, Yavapai County.

John Moore, advance agent of Lew Johnson's Minstrels, arrived yesterday and has billed the troupe to play at the Opera House, Saturday evening, January 3.

Phoenix Lodge No. 2, I. O. O. F., have issued invitations to public installation ceremonies and social, to be given on Saturday evening, January 3, at their hall and banquet room, in the Monihan block.

Lew Johnson's minstrels will appear at the Opera House Saturday, January 3. Regarding this company, the Post-Intelligencer says: "Lew Johnson's minstrels were greeted with a full house and a more than pleased audience."

T. J. Trask has almost completed his warehouse, in the rear of his Washington Street store, and about the first will move the old Smith store stock into it. His business is daily increasing, the sales last Saturday amounting to $1000.

The Board of Supervisors held a short meeting yesterday afternoon. The report of the poll tax collector was accepted, also a report of taxes collected and remaining uncollected on delinquent roll of 1890. The Treasurer was ordered to give the tax collector credit for all uncollected taxes reported by him. The Board adjourned to meet at 10 a. m. to-day.

Probate Judge Frank Baxter and Mrs. Mary H. Fry were quietly married at the residence of the bride Sunday evening. The ceremony was performed by Judge Kibbley, there being but two or three friends of the contracting parties present. The Judge continued the duties of his office yesterday as usual but devoted most of the day in receiving the congratulations of his friends.

In the police court yesterday Ed Forrest was tried on the charge of stealing and dismissed; Joe McSpenna was fined $25 for assault; Sam Parker paid $5 for being drunk and disorderly; Golden Miner, one of the unbleached denim mondes, was fined $10 for using vulgar and obscene language; J. H. Bowser was dismissed on the same charge, and Ramon Contreras got seven and a half days in the city jail for sleeping drunk.

Judge Kibbley announced from the bench yesterday that he would hear argument upon the water cases next Monday and during the coming week or as long as necessary. The Supreme Court will then follow for a three week's session. Then will follow a trial of the damage suits against the Walnut Grove Water Storage Company, after which, if the Grand Jury point shall be decided by the Supreme Court of the United States, the delayed criminal cases will be tried.

PERSONAL.

G. W. Baker, Wilcox, A. D. Lemon, San Francisco, registered at the Lemon Hotel.

Mrs. W. A. Davis returned yesterday from several weeks' visit to relatives in Texas.

Charles Genung started for his ranch in Peeples Valley, Yavapai County, yesterday.

Judge A. D. Lemon was among the arrivals yesterday. He came from San Francisco.

Miss Lee Underhill and Mrs. Harry Clark, of Mojave, Cal., are spending the holidays in Phoenix with friends.

Captain Williams, who has been visiting Phoenix several days, left on this morning's train for San Francisco.

Chas. T. Springer, Tempe, B. A. Chapman, Los Angeles, S. Braunhart, San Francisco, Thomas Beasley, Evanston, Wyo., registered yesterday at the Commercial.

N. W. Spaulding, Inspector of Customs from Yuma, arrived in Phoenix on yesterday's train. He is up on a short business trip, and will return tomorrow.

N. W. Spaulding, Yuma, A. T., Charlie Ingalls, Yuma, John Moore, Agent Lew Johnson's Minstrels, arrived by yesterday's train and registered at the Mills House.

A SENSITIVE COOK.

Albert Kennedy Objects to Criticism Upon His Culinary Skill.

The case of Albert Kennedy, arrested Sunday for assault with a butcher knife upon Mrs. McClaren, was tried yesterday, before Justice Richards. E. J. Edwards represented the Territory and Kennedy conducted his own defense.

The evidence produced showed that Kennedy was a hot tempered fellow and objected to being criticized or even to having fault found with his work as a cook. It happened that being remonstrated with by Mr. McClaren, for using violent language in addressing Mrs. McClaren, the former was invited to go to the kitchen, whereupon Kennedy was ordered from the premises; before going he grabbed a butcher knife and made a lunge at Mr. McClaren with the apparent intention of sticking it into him. Mrs. McClaren at this juncture ran between them and caught the knife, cutting her hand seriously.

The defendant was held to await the action of the Grand Jury in $500 bonds.
